

Common Wildflowers of the Carl T. Johnson Nature Preserve

Artwork by Julie Raabe
Gentry

Great White Trillium
Trillium grandiflorum

Northern Starflower
Trientalis borealis

Canadian Mayflower
Maianthemum canadense

Oxeye Daisy
Leucanthemum vulgare

Daisy Fleabane
Erigeron annuus

Hoary Alyssum
Berteroa incana

Campion
Silene sp.

White Clover
Trifolium repens

Queen Anne's Lace
Daucus carota

Eastern Enchanter's
Nightshade
Circaea canadensis

Rabbit Tobacco
Pseudognaphalium obtusifolium

Calico Aster
Symphotrichum lateriflorum

Yellow Trout Lily
Erythronium americanum

Yellow Salsify
Tragopogon dubius

St. John's Wort
Hypericum perforatum

Cat's Ear
Hypochaeris sp.

Silver Cinquefoil
Potentilla argentea

Sulfur Cinquefoil
Potentilla recta

Lance-leaved Coreopsis
Coreopsis lanceolata

Great Mullein
Verbascum thapsus

False Sunflower
Heliopsis helianthoides

Black-eyed Susan
Rudbeckia hirta

Slender Yellow Woodsorrel
Oxalis dillenii

Tall Goldenrod
Solidago altissima

Grass-leaved Goldenrod
Euthamia graminifolia

Grey-headed Coneflower
Ratibida pinnata

Orange Hawkweed
Hieracium aurantiacum

Butterfly Weed
Asclepias tuberosa

Herb Robert
Geranium robertianum

Common Blue Violet
Viola sororia

Red Clover
Trifolium pratense

Common Milkweed
Asclepias syriaca

Purple Prairie Clover
Dalea purpure

Self-Heal
Prunella vulgaris

Common Speedwell
Veronica officinalis

Spotted Knapweed
Centaurea stoebe

Vetch
Vicia sp.

Wild Bergamont
Monarda fistulosa

Common Bull Thistle
Cirsium vulgare

Purple Coneflower
Echinacea purpurea

New England Aster
Symphyotrichum novae-angliae

